Ciclo metodológico: Let's Listen!

¿Cuáles son las 3 etapas para desarrollar LISTENING?

Greeting people

CAN YOU...

• greet formally and informally?

Yes, I can.

I need help.

LET'S LISTEN!

LISTEN, UNDERSTAND & APPLY

1 Read and complete the checklist.

In the United States (US) and the United Kingdom (UK), titles are used in formal settings. Is it the same in Peru? Say YES or NO.

FORMAL AND INFORMAL GREETINGS

In the US/ UK

In Peru

1. Use titles and last names when you are in a formal situation. For example, Good morning, Mrs. Martinez!

2. Mrs. refers to a married woman. It also refers to a widow, but sometimes widows prefer Ms.

3. Miss traditionally refers to a single woman, often young. But it's not strictly limited to age.

4. Mr. is used for men regardless of age or marital status.

5. Ms. is a neutral term used for women without indicating marital status. It's commonly used in professional or formal settings when the marital status is either unknown or irrelevant.

Mrs. Miss Mr. Ms.

Titles in professional contexts

Always use the title that reflects the individual's professional role.

Example:

• Professor Smith (at universities)

• Dr. Taylor (Medicine)

• Principal Jones (The head of a primary or secondary school)

Do you use titles in your country? What's the name of your school's principal?

I look at the pictures, imagine the conversation between Iliriy and the the conversation.

zu imagined similar?

Common greetings like Good morning/afternoon/evening/night are used to acknowledge someone at different times of the day. Do you use these kinds of greetings?

Morning Afternoon Evening

Good morning! Good afternoon! Good evening!

Use Good night when you're saying goodbye to someone in the evening or at night, typically before going to bed or at a parting phrase. Is it similar in your language?

YOUR TURN

Work in pairs. Take turns to play the role of Mrs. Olaya. Use your own information. Use formal greetings and titles. Act it out with a different partner each time.

LET'S READ!

READ, UNDERSTAND & APPLY

- 1 The title of the text is "This is my family!" Circle the words that you think are going to appear in the text. Compare with a partner.

- 2 Read the paragraph about Ana and her family. Ana introduces her family.

THIS IS MY FAMILY!

Hi! I'm Ana. I'm 12 years old. I live in Cajamarca and this is my family! My father is an electrician. His name is Felipe. My mother is a math teacher. Her name is Sandra. Fernando and I are students. Fernando's 16 years old. He's a musician. He sings and plays the guitar. Where do we go to school? We're students at the Fe y Alegria School in Cajamarca. We're in Chimbote now, on vacation. I met a new friend in Chimbote, Paul. He's a tourist from the United States and he speaks English. Paul's friendly. He's 15 years old. I speak English with him. I think English is important. It's an excellent tool to connect with the world.

- 3 Discuss with a partner if your prediction about the words in Activity 1 is correct.

- 4 Read the text in Activity 2 again. Answer the questions based on the pictures.

- Who is Ana?
- Who is Fernando?
- Who is Sandra?
- Who is Felipe?
- Who plays the guitar?

- 6 Read the paragraph about Ana and her family again. Answer the questions.

	Yes, she is.	No, she isn't.
	Yes, he is.	No, he isn't.

- Is Ana's father a mechanic?
- Is Ana's mother a teacher?
- Is Fernando a singer?
- Is Ana in Cajamarca now?
- Is Paul 16 years old?

- 5 Compare your answers with a partner.

- 7 Share your answer with a partner.

YOUR TURN!

Let's play! Work in pairs. Describe one of Ana's family members. Take turns to discover the person's identity.

She's 12 years old! He's ... That's Ana!!!
